

We Pledge to Stand Up Against Bullying!

Beachwood Elementary School is excited to celebrate “Respect Week” October 2nd-6th.

- Students are encouraged to participate in our school wide activities.
- Parents are encouraged to raise awareness about bullying and teach our children to, “Take a Stand Lend a Hand.”

Monday: “Yellow Day” Wear Yellow for Respect!

Students will sign the TR3R Pledge-“As a student of the TRSD, I pledge to: Respect myself by making good choices, respect my classmates by treating them kindly, and take responsibility for my actions!”

Tuesday: “Character Counts”

Beachwood is filled with “Good Characters” that make the right choice. Please wear your favorite character or superhero attire.

Wednesday: “Work It Out Wednesday”

Wear your workout clothes as a reminder to “work things out” by resolving conflicts and compromising.

Thursday: “Mix-Match Day”

Wear mix-match socks or clothing as a reminder to respect differences in each other.

Friday: “Anti-Bullying Walk”

Please wear blue and white to show our commitment to respect and a bully free school. Wear sneakers for our “Respect Walk”.
