

Toms River High School North attended the FBLA New Jersey State Leadership Conference (SLC) on March 8th and 9th in Atlantic City.

The students who attended the SLC from High School North were Daniel Lee and Natalie Weisenstein. This year's theme was, "Pave Your Path." Activities included competitive events, where winners could earn the opportunity to compete in the National Leadership Conference. While at the SLC, students participated in the state FBLA officer elections and attended leadership, business, and college workshops.

Daniel Lee competed in the Personal Finance event and qualified as a finalist. He placed fifth out of hundreds of students in the state.

Toms River High School North also received a Certificate of Recognition for Membership Expansion in the 2017-18 School Year.
