

Congratulations to TRN junior Zachary Dougherty who had the honor of introducing Governor Phil Murphy for the ceremonial signing of new gun law prevention legislation at the Richard J. Hughes Justice Complex in Trenton. Zach had a personal hand in each of the 6 laws passed and was given the pen used in the signing of the bills. He was congratulated by the leaders of the State Senate, Assembly and the Attorney General for his state wide leadership on the issue of school safety. Pictured with Zach are: Assemblyman Louis Greenwald, former governor and state senator Richard Codey, Governor Murphy and Parkland High School shooting survivor, Alphonso Calderone.
