

Middle School Teachers We Need Your Help!

COMETS (Career Oriented Math, Engineering, Technology and Science) would like you to help us raise parents' and students' awareness of the importance of math and science for success in our competitive, technological global economy.

You are invited to help our students...

Learn more now, do more now, earn more later!

Who should attend: Teachers, Parents, Students, anyone interested in the future of New Jersey's workforce.

One hour of Professional Development is available

Keynote: Dana Egreczky, Vice President of the New Jersey Chamber of Commerce and director of the business Coalition for Educational Excellence.

When: Tuesday, May 6, 2008

Where: High School North Auditorium, Old Freehold Road, Toms River, NJ 08753

Time: 7:00PM – 8:00PM

Cost: Free

Contact Information: COMETS Chair, Dr. Bill Eventoff @ 732- 341-2951.
Dr. Nancy Gerry, Director of OCC School Relations @
732-255-0477

COMETS (Career Oriented Mathematics, Engineering, Technology and Science) is a partnership between Ocean County School Districts, local businesses, the NAVAIR program at the Naval Air Engineering Station at Lakehurst and Ocean County College.

