6. Required criminal history check and proof of U.S. citizenship or resident alien status.

REPORTS TO: Superintendent and/or designee

JOB GOAL:

The Preschool Intervention and Referral Specialist -Early Childhood Education consults with Instructional Coaches and preschool classroom teachers to adapt and modify teaching practices to help preschool children meet the Preschool Standards, as required by N.J.A.C. 6A: 13A-4.4.

PERFORMANCE RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Preschool Intervention and Referral Teams (PIRT) responsibilities include working with teachers, families and other preschool personnel on the implementation of the district chosen social emotional curriculum and the four levels of the Pyramid Model and Positive Behavior Supports (PBS) from the Center on the Social Emotional Foundations for Early Learning (CSEFEL) and the Technical Assistance Center for Social Emotional Interventions (TACSEI). CSEFEL and TACSEI resources can be obtained at:
<http://www.vanderbilt.edu/csefel/> and http://www.challengingbehavior.org/do/pyramid_model.htm.
2. PIRT dedicates the greatest amount of professional time working in classrooms, observing teachers and children, collecting documentation and data, modeling strategies, and providing feedback using CSEFEL, TACSEI and Positive Behavior Supports.
3. PIRT meets outside of the classroom to write intervention and positive behavior support plans based on the data and information gathered during classroom observations and interviews with families, teachers and other relevant staff.
4. PIRT uses a consultation model as outlined by CSEFEL, TACSEI and PBS and does not give therapeutic interventions directly to children. In addition, PIRT provides substantial yearly professional development on the district's social and emotional curriculum, CSEFEL, TACSEI and the four levels of the pyramid model including PBS, the district's PIRT Protocol and the Request for Assistance (RFA).
5. Professional development is ongoing and is routinely offered by PIRT to classroom teachers, paraprofessionals, special education support staff, administrative staff, and parents and families, in a variety of ways, differentiated to match varying levels of experience, expertise, and need.
6. Professional development should include one-on-one consultations, technical assistance meetings, informal work groups, and structured small and large group presentations.
Additional

7. Coordinate the administration of a developmentally based screening such as the Early Screening Inventory-Revised (Meisels et al., 1997).
8. Establish a PIRT assistance Protocol including a Request for Assistance (RFA) form. Once an RFA is received, establish and manage a case file for each child. Each case file contains a PIRT Intervention Plan which may include a Positive Behavior Support Plan (PBS) as needed. PBS plans are typically needed for only 1-4% of the classroom population: <http://www.vanderbilt.edu/CSEFEL/>.
9. Conduct classroom visits to observe, coach, model strategies, make verbal and written recommendations, and provide feedback regarding the child's Intervention Plan or PBS plan. 15 Modify and adapt the Intervention Plan or PBS plan as necessary throughout the year.
10. Consult with necessary professionals and families as applicable (i.e. classroom teacher, master teacher, administrators, social workers, family workers). Evaluate the progress of the child and, if necessary, facilitate a written referral to the school district's Child Study Team as set forth in N.J.A.C. 6A:14. Facilitate transition of all PIRT case files when necessary to other programs (i.e. kindergarten, CST) per written district policy.

ANNUAL EVALUATION: Performance of this job will be evaluated annually in accordance with New Jersey State law and the provision of the board's policy on evaluations.

Adopted:

TITLE: COMMUNITY AND PARENT INVOLVEMENT SPECIALIST (CPIS)

QUALIFICATIONS:

Citt

This student is classified eligible for special education and related services based on the criteria of Emotional Regulation Impairment. An out of district placement is being recommended due to aggressive behaviors and the tendency to eloped from the school environment. The team feels that placement in an out of district setting is appropriate at this time.

CLASSIFICATION: Autism

PLACEMENT: Bancroft

PRO-RATED TUITION: $30,856.77

PT/jh

This student is classified eligible for special education and related services based on the criteria of Autism. The student is being placed residentially at Bancroft due to increased behaviors in home and at school. Behaviors include significant aggression, self-injurious behaviors and elopement that all has posed harm. In-home support has been unsuccessful and maintaining personnel support in the home has been difficult due to the severity of behaviors. An out of district placement is being recommended
