Unit Overview

Content Area: Fine Arts - Instrumental Music

Unit Title: Unit #1 - Pitch - 15 days

Target Course/Grade Level: 6-7

Unit Summary: Students will be able to play appropriate pitches at all times. Students will tune their instruments using an electronic tuner and will make manual adjustments as needed while playing to remain in tune.

Primary Interdisciplinary Connections: Throughout the music learning students will learn the history of the composer's lives, as well as the culture and society in which they lived. Students learn the science behind the nature of sound and how their instrument produces sound so that they can maximize the beauty of their own tone production. They will study the mathematical underpinnings and fractional relationships between note durations in music notation, as well as develop an understanding of music terminology for tempo and dynamics in Italian and occasionally German. The aesthetic study of music also is embedded in the general humanities and helps strengthen character education and civic connectivity. This process is revisited with each new piece of music and is approached multiple times in every unit.

Unit Essential Questions

- What are we listening for?
- What sounds good? Bad?
- What is “out of tune?”
- How do we improve our sound?
- How do I produce tone on my instrument?
- How do I manipulate my sound to change it?
- What standard varieties of sounds can I create on my instrument?

Unit Enduring Understandings

Students will understand that...

- Listening is the essential musical experience (hearing needs to be protected).
- Listening and thinking critically are essential musical skills. imaginative and creative process.
- Musicians must be prepared and responsible for assessment and public performance, both during and outside of school hours.

Unit Objectives

Through class time, rehearsals, and weekly lessons, students will know...

- The effect of length of instrument on pitch.
- Tuning slides, mouthpiece adjustments.
- Read the electronic tuner and adjust accordingly.
- Coordinate the sounds of “flat” and “sharp” with the visual provided by the tuner.
- Sharps, flats, naturals, double sharps and double flats all serve to alter the pitch by sequential half steps and whole steps.
- Identifying and following key signatures.
- Recognize major and minor tonalities.
- Identify scales as being major, minor, chromatic, whole tone, etc.

Unit Objectives

Students will be able to...

Melody and Ear Training (Winds):

· Middle School Prerequisites : exercises (etudes), band literature, scales, and simple duets in the keys of concert Bb, F,; starting dynamics, Bb and F concert scales from memory (one octave); tongue, tie and slur articulations.

Grade Six: exercises, (etudes), band literature, scales and simple duets in the keys of concert Bb, F, Eb, and C; continue dynamics and tone production; Bb, Eb, and F concert scales from sight reading of level (1) literature, memory (two octaves); perform level (1) rhythms; introduce staccato articulation.

Evidence of Learning

Formative Assessments: Participation in online discussion and response to electronic communication. Participation in classroom performance and rehearsal activities.

Summative Assessments: Testing in class or through video or audio recording of students performing their parts or demonstrating technique or musical concepts. Participation in performances and events at varied times and locations.

Benchmark Assessments: Since each student comes into a music classroom with different abilities and levels of training, benchmarks will be developed individually in consultation with the students and their parents, where required. Once a final goal for the unit is established, benchmarks assessments will be established at regular intervals to accomplish the growth objective.

Alternative Assessments: Where needed, goal based rubrics of the performance assessments will be adjusted to account for special needs or disabilities of the student in order to encourage personal growth and progress towards overall ensemble objectives.

Suggested Differentiation: Differentiation in the Performance ensemble is offered on the content and process levels with the goal of creating an artistic musical product of high aesthetic value.

Some Options for Differentiation in Process include:

1. Listen to the piece of music being performed while following along with the notation.
2. Sight-read the music without hearing it in advance and without expectations on the sound.
3. Listen to different performances of the work online and compare interpretations.
4. Record and critique the class's performance and then students' recommend corrections.
5. Analyze the music harmonically, rhythmically, or in search of technical difficulty.

Some Options for Differentiation in Content include:

1. Using varied repertoire of several styles to highlight the same musical idea.
2. Introduce student improvisation using a musical concept in a piece or warm-up.
3. Utilize both classroom and online learning environments to share media.

Modifications: Adjustments will be made in accordance with IEP and 504 Plans.

Evidence of Learning
Formative Assessments: Participation in online discussion and response to electronic communication. Participation in classroom performance and rehearsal activities.
Suggested Summative Assessments: Testing in class or through video or audio recording of students performing their parts or demonstrating technique or musical concepts. Participation in performances and events at varied times and locations.

Benchmark Assessments: Since each student comes into a music classroom with different abilities and levels of training, benchmarks will be developed individually in consultation with the students and their parents, where required. Once a final goal for the unit is established, benchmark assessments will be established at regular intervals to accomplish the growth objective.

Alternative Assessments: Where needed, goal based rubrics of the performance assessments will be adjusted to account for special needs or disabilities of the student in order to encourage personal growth and progress towards overall ensemble objectives.

Suggested Differentiation: Differentiation in the Performance ensemble is offered on the content and process levels with the goal of creating an artistic musical product of high aesthetic value.

Some Options for Differentiation in Process include:

1. Listen to the piece of music being performed while following along with the notation.
2. Sight-read the music without hearing it in advance and without expectations on the sound.
3. Listen to different performances of the work online and compare interpretations.
4. Record and critique the class's performance and then students' recommend corrections.
5. Analyze the music harmonically, rhythmically, or in search of technical difficulty.

Some Options for Differentiation in Content include:

1. Using varied repertoire of several styles to highlight the same musical idea.
2. Introduce student improvisation using a musical concept in a piece or warm-up.
3. Utilize both classroom and online learning environments to share media.

Modifications: Adjustments will be made in accordance with IEP and 504 Plans.

Unit Overview

Content Area: Fine Arts - Instrumental Music

Unit Title: Unit #3 - Dynamics & Form - 15 days

Target Course/Grade Level: 6-7

Unit Summary:

- Students will demonstrate various dynamic levels and demonstrate knowledge of how the music is assembled (form).
- The student will be able to recognize a musical phrase as a formal component.
- The student will be able to identify themes used to generate whole compositions.
- The student will be able to identify and define formal markings, e.g., repeat signs, first and second endings, da capo, dal segno.
- The student will be able to identify the basic structure of a march employing terms such as first strain, break strain, trio and dogfight.
- The student will be able to trace themes or motifs as they recur in a piece.

Primary Interdisciplinary Connections: Throughout the music learning students will learn the history of the composer's lives, as well as the culture and society in which they lived. Students learn the science behind the nature of sound and how their instrument produces sound so that they can maximize the beauty of their own tone production. They will study the mathematical underpinnings and fractional relationships between note durations in music notation, as well as develop an understanding of music terminology for tempo and dynamics in Italian and occasionally German. The aesthetic study of music also is embedded in the general humanities and helps strengthen character education and civic connectivity. This process is revisited with each new piece of music and is approached multiple times in every unit.

Unit Overview

Content Area: Fine Arts - Instrumental Music

Unit Title: Unit #5 - Style - 15 days

Target Course/Grade Level: 6-7

Unit Summary:

- Students will perform music in a variety of styles.
- The student will be able to visually and aurally identify articulations that are staccato, legato, or slurred.

Primary Interdisciplinary Connections: Throughout the music learning students will learn the history of the composer's lives, as well as the culture and society in which they lived. Students learn the science behind the nature of sound and how their instrument produces sound so that they can maximize the beauty of their own tone production. They will study the mathematical underpinnings and fractional relationships between note durations in music notation, as well as develop an understanding of music terminology for tempo and dynamics in Italian and occasionally German. The aesthetic study of music also is embedded in the general humanities and helps strengthen character education and civic connectivity. This process is revisited with each new piece of music and is approached multiple times in every unit.

Unit Overview

Content Area: Fine Arts - Instrumental Music

Unit Title: Unit #6 -Technical Objectives - 15 days

Target Course/Grade Level: 6-7

Unit Summary:

- Students will be able to perform a variety of musical techniques while maintaining their instrument and measuring their personal and ensemble successes.
- The student will demonstrate appropriate marching band skills - various formations, the ability to march in time and other corps-style commands.
- Percussionists will prepare rudiments appropriate to the music being prepared.

Primary Interdisciplinary Connections: Throughout the music learning students will learn the history of the composer's lives, as well as the culture and society in which they lived. Students learn the science behind the nature of sound and how their instrument produces sound so that they can maximize the beauty of their own tone production. They will study the mathematical underpinnings and fractional relationships between note durations in music notation, as well as develop an understanding of music terminology for tempo and dynamics in Italian and occasionally German. The aesthetic study of music also is embedded in the general humanities and helps strengthen character education and civic connectivity. This process is revisited with each new piece of music and is approached multiple times in every unit.

Evidence of Learning

Formative Assessments: Participation in classroom performance and rehearsal activities.

Suggested Summative Assessments: Creation of an event that highlights multiple pathways, a comparative document of Arts careers and their lifestyle/learning gateway requirements. Participation in parades, concerts, football games, and other band related activities.

Benchmark Assessments: Since each student comes into a music classroom with different abilities and levels of training, benchmarks will be developed individually in consultation with the students and their parents, where required. Once a final goal for the unit is established, benchmark assessments will be established at regular intervals to accomplish the growth objective.

Alternative Assessments: Where needed, goal based rubrics of the performance assessments will be adjusted to account for special needs or disabilities of the student in order to encourage personal growth and progress towards overall ensemble objectives.

Suggested Differentiation: Differentiation in the Performance ensemble is offered on the content and process levels with the goal of creating an artistic musical product of high aesthetic value.

Some Options for Differentiation in Process include:

1. Listen to the piece of music being performed while following along with the notation.
2. Sight-read the music without hearing it in advance and without expectations on the sound.
3. Listen to different performances of the work online and compare interpretations.
4. Record and critique the class's performance and then students' recommend corrections.
5. Analyze the music harmonically, rhythmically, or in search of technical difficulty.

Some Options for Differentiation in Content include:

1. Using varied repertoire of several styles to highlight the same musical idea.
2. Introduce student improvisation using a musical concept in a piece or warm-up.
3. Utilize both classroom and online learning environments to share media.

Modifications: Adjustments will be made in accordance with IEP and 504 Plans.
