

If you are having problems getting access to Google Classroom please look here.

If a parent or sibling is signed in to google on your computer this may be preventing you from accessing classroom. You may need to sign the other person out, switch accounts or add in your student account.

Once you add your username and password you should be able to get into google classroom.

These should be the same

